

MA Performance Writing

Congratulations on gaining a place on the MA Performance Writing course at University College Falmouth.

I'd like to take this opportunity to welcome you to the course. The team is looking forward to spending the year with what promises to be a lively and stimulating group of students, which of course includes you!

Our first meeting will be on Tuesday 4 October at 10.00am in the Reading Room at Arnolfini, Bristol. This will be an opportunity to meet the course team, Arnolfini staff and your fellow students, and we will also be giving you details of the course requirements.

On arrival you will be given a Student Handbook, which includes full details of all aspects of the course and UCF procedures, and a timetable of your lectures and seminars. The handbook includes reading lists for each of the course's modules, but in the meantime if you would like some pre-course reading suggestions, please get in touch with me via email.

During that first meeting we will also organise a trip to Falmouth to look around the facilities there, sign up to the library and meet up with other tutors and postgraduate students whose practice and interests might coincide with your own.

During the summer you will be emailed important information for new students. If you will be away, please ask someone else to check your emails regularly and reply on your behalf.

If you have any queries prior to enrolment, please contact Bryony Lane in the Admissions Office on 01326 213784, email bryony.lane@falmouth.ac.uk or contact me directly.

Have a wonderful summer. Do lots of reading. I look forward to meeting you in October.

Yours sincerely
