

MA ILLUSTRATION: AUTHORIAL PRACTICE

WELCOME TO MA ILLUSTRATION: AUTHORIAL PRACTICE AT FALMOUTH.

I would like to take this opportunity, formally, to welcome you to MA Illustration: Authorial Practice at Falmouth. I hope that you will enjoy your time at Falmouth and are rewarded by this programme of study.

First week of term

I am very pleased to let you know that the MA Illustration: Authorial Practice course will be moving into the Illustration Building (adjacent to the Refectory) on the Falmouth Campus in Woodlane for the beginning of the new academic year.

Your first day of attendance will be Monday 21 September 2015. Please report to the MA Illustration Studio, Ground Floor of the Illustration Building at 10am.

Both full-time and part-time students will need to be available for the whole of the Induction Week from Monday 21 to Friday 25 September, unless you have made previous arrangements with us. There will be a number of inductions to various aspects of the course and you will be given a presentation of our recent MA Show.

You will also receive a full introduction to Falmouth, including Falmouth and Penryn campus tours, and be issued with your Falmouth University student handbook. This induction week sees the first of five taught sessions which form part of the first module, Practice as Research.

As part of the induction you will be asked briefly to talk about your work, your ambitions for its development and your interests in authorial illustration generally. This will be very informal and you won't need to bring any examples of your work. The intention is to make everyone aware of the various approaches, skills and interests of each individual's practice and to help the group recognise any particular shared areas of interest and to nurture collaborations. Our students come from diverse backgrounds, so this exchange of knowledge and expertise will be valuable to all.

MyTimetable

<https://mytimetable.falmouth.ac.uk/> available from 1 September 2015

This is the link to MyTimetable, your online academic calendar which shows all scheduled learning activities and your course timetable. It will be available from 1 September 2015, however, timetables can be subject to change. To keep up to date, we recommend that you export the feed to your chosen device (mobile, tablet, laptop or desktop). An induction will be offered on the use of MyTimetable during freshers' week. Students will have access to their individual student timetables, where appropriate, once they have completed their online enrolment and IT induction.

During the next few weeks you may be emailed further information for new students. If you are likely to be away, please ask someone else to check your emails regularly and reply on your behalf. In addition, I will set up a student group email for the new academic year and will send out information to help you when you start the course. If everyone is happy for us to text them, we can use this for sending messages at short notice.

If you have been made a conditional offer to study at Falmouth, your place is subject to meeting those conditions. If you have any questions, please contact Cyd Roberts in the Admissions Office on 01326 213730 or email cyd.roberts@falmouth.ac.uk

Best wishes
