WELCOME

Spring 2016 was a busy season in the Academy of Music and Theatre Arts, with high participation in our Saturday morning Young Persons' Dance Sessions, inspirational performances from, amongst others; Mr & Mrs Clark, Protein Dance Company and Bellatrix, and the first live networked performance between students of AMATA and the Detroit Institute of Music Education.

As is customary, the AMATA Annual Showcase by graduating students will take place in late May and early June. This event welcomes the public, and I urge all interested in our work to come and support our students and engage in their performances, events and concerts.

This summer programme also features a range of other assessed student events; while the International Schools' Theatre Association deliver an exciting youth theatre festival for young people aged 14-21; The National Rural Touring Forum host the national New Directions showcasing festival; and the Falmouth-Yamaha Jazz Summer School returns with a line-up of fantastic tutors for all levels of ability with Yamaha Guest Jazz Artist, Troy Miller. In July the Academy will also host a residency for the Belarus Free Theatre, as part of our support for the generation of ground-breaking new international work here in Cornwall.

Shoreline is a promenade performance exploring our connection with the sea. It is amphibious; danced in the water, as well as on the sand and rocks, to live choral music. It is a metaphor for the storms we all endure, the moments of tranquility we seek and the borders and boundaries we fear or dare to cross.

Shoreline is an ode to the coastline, and all that it means to us.

MUSIC DOCUMENTARY SCREENING*

PULP: A FILM ABOUT LIFE, DEATH & SUPERMARKETS

18.30

Though culminating with the farewell concert the band played to thousands of adoring fans in their hometown of Sheffield, England, PULP is by no means a traditional concert film or rock doc. As much a testament to the band as it is to the city and inhabitants of Sheffield, PULP weaves exclusive concert footage with man-on-the-street interviews and dreamy staged sequences to paint a picture much larger, funnier, moving, and life affirming than any music film of recent memory.

This event is part of the monthly Your Favourite Music Documentary Screenings series and has been chosen by the audience in February.
