

VACATION OF PREMISES

Students are normally permitted to be present in such parts of the University premises as are made available to them for the purpose of academic study or other recognised activity, but may be required to vacate the University premises at any time. (See also campus security for full details)