1 Annual Tuition Fees

The annual fees for a student enrolled are fixed for the standard duration of the course on which they are registered (2 years for a full-time student; 4 years for a part-time student).

For the purposes of this policy “Academic Year” refers to the twelve (12) month period from the date upon which the course commenced and the anniversary of that date thereafter.

	Full-time (2 years)	Part-time (4 years)
BA(Hons) Creative Music Performance (Drums)	£4,500.00 / annum	£3,500.00 / annum
BA(Hons) Creative Music Performance (JTC Guitar)	£4,620.00 / annum	£3,620.00 / annum
BA(Hons) Creative Songwriting	£4,500.00 / annum	£3,500.00 / annum
BA(Hons) Music Entrepreneurship	£4,500.00 / annum	£3,500.00 / annum

2 Self-funded students

All prospective self-funded students who have been offered a place must pay an acceptance fee of £150 per annum. The acceptance fee is payable upon acceptance of an offer.

The acceptance fee will be off-set against the annual tuition fee due.

There is a cooling off period of 14 days from date of payment during which the student may withdraw their acceptance of the offer and receive a refund. After this period of 14 days the acceptance fee is non-refundable except in circumstances stated in clause 2.1.1.

Tuition fees must be paid by either:

- Annually at the beginning of each Academic Year, with a discount of 5% being awarded.
- 3 instalments at the beginning of each Study Block.
- Monthly instalments over 10 months.

APPENDIX 1 shows the detailed instalments for each option of paying for the 2 Year Full-Time degree, either annually, over 3 instalments or over 10 months.

APPENDIX 2 shows the detailed instalments for each option of paying for the 4 Year Part-Time degree, either annually, over 3 instalments or over 10 months

To be eligible for the 5% discount, tuition fees must be paid by the date specified in the Appendices or within 5 days of the offer letter being sent, whichever is the later.

If paying over instalments, the first instalment must be paid by the date specified in the Appendices or within 5 days of the offer letter being sent, whichever is the later.

2.1 Liability (Self-funded Students)

2.1.1 Acceptance fees

The initial acceptance fee is non-refundable, except in the following circumstances:

- The conditions of the offer are not met by the applicant
- There are valid extenuating circumstances that prevent the applicant from starting the course (see also, 4)
- The applicant cancels their enrolment within the 14-day cooling off period.

2.1.2 Tuition fees

Withdrawal or Intermittence

Students who withdraw and/or intermit from their studies during the Academic Year in which will be liable tuition fees in accordance with the liability points below.

First Year Students who withdraw/intermit in the first three (3) weeks including of the first study block will not be liable for a payment of tuition fees. Any tuition already paid will be refunded.

1st liability point

Newly enrolled students will become liable for 35% of the annual tuition fee when they have been in attendance for more than three (3) weeks of the study block in which they commence their studies.

Re-enrolling students will become liable for 35% of the annual tuition fee for any attendance during their first study block of the following Academic Year

2nd liability point

All students will become liable for 70% of the annual tuition fee for any attendance during their second study block:

September 2018 start
28 January 2019 to 31 May 2019

January 2019 start
3 June 2019 to 20 September 2019

June 2019 start
23 September 2019 to 24 January 2020

3rd liability point

All students will become liable for 100% of the annual tuition fee for any attendance during their third and final study block of the year:

September 2018 start
3 June 2019 onwards

January 2019 start
23 September 2019 onwards

June 2019 start
27 January 2020 onwards

All continuing students will be deemed as in attendance from the first day of each study block unless they have notified us of their intention to withdraw or intermit prior to the start of the study block.

Intermittence is due to extenuating circumstances

Where intermittence is due to extenuating circumstance and occurs part way through a study block, then on return the student can restart that study block and no repeat fee charges will be incurred

Long-term illness or injury, bereavement, pregnancy, and/or conscription will be considered as valid grounds for extenuating circumstances, with the provision of supporting evidence. This list is not exhaustive and other circumstances maybe taken into consideration.

Intermittence is not due to extenuating circumstances

Any study blocks that have not been undertaken prior to the student's intermittence will be payable in accordance with the relevant schedule outlined in this policy upon the student's return to study.

Where intermittence is not due to extenuating circumstances and occurs part way through a study block, the student will incur a £200 repeat fee per module upon their return to study.

3 Students in receipt of a Student Loan

Students who are in receipt of a student loan must pay a £150 deposit upon acceptance of an offer. There is a cooling off period of 14 days from date of payment during which the student may withdraw their acceptance of the offer and receive a refund.

The deposit will be refunded to the student, upon completion of their degree and within 30 days of DIME ONLINE receiving the final instalment from Falmouth University.

The student loan company (SLC) pays the tuition fees directly to the University via annual instalments; students will be required to submit proof of funding by the student loan company (SLC), annually, to the University.

3.1.1 Deposits

The acceptance deposit is non-refundable, except in the following circumstances:

- The conditions of the offer are not met by the applicant
- There are valid extenuating circumstances that prevent the applicant from starting the course (see also, 4)
- The applicant cancels their enrolment within the 14-day cooling off period.
- The student completes the course on which they are registered (i.e. the student must have submitted all summative assessments necessary for the accumulation of credit required to pass the course, including all compulsory credit).

3.1.2 Tuition Fees

If the Student Loan Company deems a student as not being eligible for a student loan, either within the duration of their study or at a later date, then the student becomes liable for payment of the tuition fees.

If a student withdraws or intermits during the Academic Year, they will become liable for a percentage of the annual tuition fee at three liability points during the Academic Year as mentioned below. Refunds will be made for any amounts paid over the percentage due. First year students who withdraw/intermit in the first three (3) weeks of the first study block will not be liable for a payment of tuition fees.

All students will be deemed as in attendance from the first day of each study block unless they have notified us of their intention to withdraw or intermit prior to the start of the study block.

1st liability point

First Year students will become liable for 25% of the annual tuition fee when they have been in attendance for more than three (3) weeks of the study block in which they commence their studies.

Re-enrolling students will become liable for 25% of the annual tuition fee for any attendance during their first study block of the following Academic Year

2nd liability point

All students will become liable for 50% of the annual tuition fee for any attendance during the following periods:

September 2018 start
28 January 2019 to 31 May 2019

January 2019 start
3 June 2019 to 20 September 2019

June 2019 start
23 September 2019 to 24 January 2020

3rd liability point

All students will become liable for 100% of the annual tuition fee for any attendance during the following periods:

September 2018 start
3 June 2019 onwards

January 2019 start
23 September 2019 onwards

June 2019 start
27 January 2020 onwards

4 Deferred entry

If a student defers their place from a prior year, the University may allow the acceptance fee/deposit to be transferred to the following Academic Year. Students who defer entry should be aware that the tuition fees are subject to inflation-linked increases.

5 Transfers

From the start date of the transfer, a recalculation of tuition fees will be processed based on the weeks within the Academic Year of study that a student is attending. They will be charged for the weeks attended on the course they are transferring from and for the weeks of study they are due to attend on the course they are transferring to study.

6 How to Pay

Payments can be made online at <https://paymentportal.falmouth.ac.uk/emulogin.aspx>. You will need to enter your Student Number.

If you are unable to make your payment in this way please speak to Falmouth University's Finance office on +44(0)1326 213778 or +44(0)1326 253790, from Monday – Friday between 09:00 and 16.45 GMT
