THE PLACE TO BE

Alive with new thinking, buzzing with opportunity and creativity, Falmouth University is the perfect place to shape your creative career.

COME AND VISIT

Come and see both campuses and soak up the atmosphere of our lively waterfront towns, Falmouth and Penryn. With stunning scenery, a vibrant arts scene and strong sense of community, can you picture yourself here?

OPEN DAYS

Experiencing Falmouth's unique environment makes all the difference – that's why we hold open days throughout the year.

See falmouth.ac.uk/opendays for details

We also organise campus tours during term-time and open campus weeks and taster days throughout the year.

For more information call 01326 213706

IN THE AREA

ACCOMMODATION
Falmouth is a busy tourist resort and working port, so if you'd like to stay a night or two, reserve your accommodation as early as possible. Find something within budget online at falriver.co.uk or call +44 (0)905 3254 534

LIVE MUSIC
Pubs, clubs, gigs, theatre and university venues provide an ever-changing soundtrack of live music. Open-mic nights, special events and festivals are held in the heart of Penryn, on Jubilee Wharf and the centre of Falmouth.

SPORTS ACTIVITIES
The Cornish coast and countryside provides a natural playground for surfing, diving, coasteering, running, biking and outdoor pursuits.

For those visiting the University for open days and interview days, convenient reduced-rate accommodation may be available in Glasney — the student village at Penryn Campus. This is subject to availability. Email events.coordinator@fxplus.ac.uk or call +44 (0)1326 370428 for details.

COLOURFUL FESTIVALS
The town hosts music, food and culture festivals throughout the year. The University is often part of festivities and stages its own events so there is always something exciting on the horizon.

ART & DISCOVERY
Falmouth's creative streak can be seen everywhere; shops, bars, cafes and restaurants exhibit local artist and student pieces. Galleries in Falmouth, St Ives and Newlyn house collections of national and international artists and you can discover more about our maritime history at the National Maritime Museum Cornwall.

EATING OUT
Cornwall is becoming well known for its cuisine and has a multitude of award-winning local food producers and stellar chefs. Satisfy your appetite in one of the area's many restaurants, relaxed beachside cafes and riverside pubs.

SHOPPING
From Falmouth's High Street and harbour-side developments, to the centre of Penryn, you have a variety of shops, boutiques, markets and emporiums to choose from.

COASTAL PATH & WILDLIFE
One of the top walks in the world, the stunning South West Coastal Path is easy to join from Falmouth. Take a deep breath and enjoy the scenery and wildlife along the way.

FREE

RELAX BY THE HARBOUR
Famous for being the start or finish point of round-the-world record-breaking voyages, you can relax and take a seat by Falmouth Harbour. Watch ships and boats from across the world in transit in a beautiful setting. For a small fee, take a ferry from Falmouth to a variety of locations to see more of Cornwall.

HOW TO GET TO FALMOUTH FROM THE UNIVERSITY CAMPUSES

FROM FALMOUTH CAMPUS
By foot
Follow the lane downhill through the heart of the campus until you reach Fox's Lane. From here follow the signs and continue walking to Falmouth town centre for approximately 5 minutes. If you have parked your car in the Dell car park, which is the closest car park to Falmouth Campus, the town is only a few minutes' walk away.

FROM PENRYN CAMPUS
By bus
Buses run regularly from Penryn Campus bus stop to Falmouth Moor. Follow the signs into town which is minutes away.

By car
Leave the campus and turn left at the first junction. Take the first exit at each of the next two roundabouts, following the A39 into Falmouth town. For locations of town centre car parks see falmouth.co.uk
