

GUEST SPEAKERS

MARCH

PAUL DODGSON

PICTURES ARE BETTER ON THE RADIO

Paul is a writer, radio producer, composer and teacher. He writes radio plays, has produced hundreds of programmes for radio and teaches life writing world-wide. Paul will describe how radio drama is written and what happens in the studio.

KATRINA NAOMI

HOW TO PUT TOGETHER A POETRY COLLECTION AND GET PUBLISHED

Katrina Naomi is a poet, tutor and poetry mentor. Her latest publication is Hooligans, a pamphlet inspired by the Suffragettes, being launched by Rack Press in London in early 2015. Katrina will talk about writing using historical material and wider issues regarding poetry collections.

STEVE POTTER

TRAINING AND SUPERVISION IN COGNITIVE ANALYTIC THERAPY

Steve Potter is a psychotherapist who will be delivering a workshop on writing for SOWJ students

APRIL

ALISON NORRINGTON

TRANSMEDIA AND CROSS-PLATFORM STORY TELLING TECHNIQUES

Alison is a transmedia and cross-platform story consultant, strategist and story architect. She is Chair of the StoryWorld Conference and is an established romantic fiction novelist. Alison will examine transmedia and cross-platform story telling techniques, give an overview of a thriving industry and advise students on opportunities for new writers.

MATT HAIG

* 2015 WRITER IN RESIDENCE *******

Matt Haig is a world renowned, multi-award winning writer of novels, screenplays and children's novels. He will be delivering workshops and tutorials for our English and Writing students as well as holding an eagerly anticipated public reading.

