

Award Summary

The Tim Coventon Award has been created in memory of Tim, who was a former Falmouth Graphic Design student, and is funded by his family.

The award is for £1,000 and intends to enable an individual to undertake a work placement in Sydney Australia – a city with which Tim had a great affinity and where he worked for world-renowned branding companies such as M&C Saatchi. The successful applicant will be offered the award in order to undertake a placement with a Sydney based agency. They will be expected to arrange the placement in conjunction with the course team and provide feedback to tutors and/or students upon their return.
