ABOUT US

Falmouth University is changing the way Higher Education is delivered. Our “doing-it-for-real” ethos means that we are planning for the needs of the future economy, ensuring our students and staff have the skills they need to stay relevant in a changing world. For more than 100 years, Falmouth has been at the forefront of using creative thinking as a force for positive economic impact in Cornwall and beyond. Today, our courses represent the entirety of the creative industries, from art and design to gaming and film, while our post-graduate programmes and research and innovation are aligned to defined market needs in high-growth sectors.

More than 5 and a half thousand students from across the globe study here with staff and students working in professional standard environments which include state-of-the-art performance studios, some of the best photography facilities in Europe, cutting edge machinery at the Fashion and Textiles Institute and a TV studio and gallery within the School of Film & Television.

As well as the courses that are delivered on-campus in Cornwall, Falmouth also provides ground-breaking online distance learning and exciting partnerships with industry-leading bodies including the Academy of Contemporary Music and the Fashion Retail Academy.

We're proud that Falmouth was awarded gold in the teaching excellence framework, is ranked 6th in the UK for student experience and is in the top 30 universities in the Times Higher Education table of tables.

FALMOUTH UNIVERSITY

Falmouth is a major creative innovation hub located in the centre of Cornwall, an inspirational place with a long history of creative and cultural innovation that is now home to one of the largest Creative Industries clusters in the UK.

Founded over a century ago as Falmouth School of Art in 1902, Falmouth merged with Dartington College of Arts in 2008 and was granted university title in 2013. In 2015, we appointed world renowned performer and writer, Dawn French, as our inaugural Chancellor.

The University is situated on two main campuses: the historic Falmouth Campus, and the Penryn Campus, acquired in 1999 and developed with over £100 million of investment, supported by European Regional Development Fund (ERDF) Convergence, the South West Regional Development Agency, and the Higher Education Funding Council for England.

Our facilities are pitched at industry standard and our staff are respected and experienced professionals in their fields.

With a mission to 'be a world class University that gives creative minds inspiring futures,' we produce highly employable and professionally astute graduates with the expertise to be successful in the growing Creative Industries, as well as the flexibility and imagination to apply their creativity for the benefit of many other sectors.

Our values - to be creative, connected and courageous – focus on guiding our students into successful careers in the Creative Industries.

The 5 strategic aims contained within the 2020 plan are:

- 1. TO PRODUCE SATISFIED STUDENTS WHO GET GREAT JOBS
- 2. TO EXPAND AND DIVERSIFY WHAT WE DO
- 3. TO HELP GROW CORNWALL
- 4. TO ESCALATE OUR RESEARCH AND INNOVATION
- 5. TO BE INTERNATIONALLY SIGNIFICANT

LOCATION & LIFESTYLE

Located on the UK's southwestern edge, Falmouth has long inspired creative minds.

Beyond the University, the National Maritime Museum Cornwall, Discovery Quay and the marina provide an insight into the geography and history of the town. The cultural legacy of Falmouth itself is legendary. The cafes, bars and micro-breweries are the best in the county. You'll find the quirky, alternative and stimulating.

Cornwall offers a unique lifestyle; the great outdoors, the Cornish coast and a landscape that has energised creative people for centuries are all right on your doorstep. It is one of the most beautiful parts of the country with a great natural and historic environment to enjoy.

The dramatic coastline stretches for hundreds of miles and is home to golden sandy beaches, beautiful towns and captivating fishing harbours, from the spectacular Minack Theatre to the UK's most westerly point, Land's End, to the cobbled streets of St Ives, there are plenty of places to explore. As well as the coast, escape to the countryside to discover the diverse landscape of Bodmin Moor. Falmouth is the gateway to the stunning Fal River, with fascinating maritime heritage; the area is perfect for watersports and boating with exceptional sailing in Carrick Roads and the Fal Estuary.

In the neighbouring towns of Falmouth and Penryn you'll find beaches, spectacular scenery, specialist shops from local art to antiques and a whole host of individual bars and restaurants. The area is well known for its year round events calendar including Falmouth Week, Falmouth Oyster Festival, Penryn Arts Festival and the ever popular International Sea Shanty Festival. The arts are integral to Cornwall's culture and economy with a wealth of contemporary artists, musicians, performers, designers, film-makers and writers all working within the county. Cornwall has a flourishing creative industries sector. The county has a proud heritage, with towns and villages steeped in history.

Cornwall is an excellent place for families. There are a number of primary schools in Falmouth, Penryn and the neighbouring villages. Secondary schools in the area include Falmouth Community School, which also has sixth form, and Penryn College.
