PLACES MAY NOT BE EXCHANGED NOR MONEY REFUNDED. THE ORGANISERS RESERVE THE RIGHT TO:

1. Make reasonably necessary alterations to the advertised classes/event arrangements, featured participants/tutors or programme.
2. Cancel or abandon any classes/events without notice and without liability for compensation or damage other than up to the maximum of the pro-rotta class price.
3. Places/tickets cannot be refunded unless a classes/event is cancelled or rescheduled so please check your booking carefully on receipt and contact us immediately if you have any queries.
4. We are not liable for lost, destroyed or stolen tickets and cannot replace them.
5. The unauthorised use of cameras, video or sound equipment is prohibited at the classes/event, and any such items may be confiscated. By attending the classes/event you consent to being filmed/recorded as part of the audience for security, broadcast, promotional and educational purposes without payment. An opt out for promotional and educational purpose can be found in the classes' registration form(s)
6. All attendees and visitors are responsible for their own property on site.
7. Parents/Guardians are responsible for their own children at all times whilst in the AMATA Arts Centre, Falmouth University and across the Penryn Campus (including all car parks and outdoor spaces).
8. Parents/Guardians are required to complete an online registration form ahead of the commencement of each academic year or at the point their child starts in an academic year. Parents/Guardians are required to keep Falmouth University up to date with any change of details to this information at the earliest opportunity.

9. From time to time additional and/or revised terms and conditions may be introduced.
