

ABOUT YOU – HEAT INFORMATION FORM

We run activities with schools and colleges across the UK to support young people to find out more about university. We use a database called the Higher Education Access Tracker (HEAT) to provide long-term tracking and help us to assess if our programmes and activity are successful. The information that you provide on this form will help us to monitor and evaluate our activities and events and track future activity of participants, including if you apply to university. This will help us to show the impact of our activity so that we can continue to offer our activities and events.

Collecting and using your data for these purposes is necessary for tasks that we are required to carry out in the public interest (e.g. promoting and widening access to Higher Education) and necessary for our legal obligations to promote higher education to particular groups. Your data will never be used for marketing purposes, shared, sold or seen by anyone else. Falmouth University may use some of the data in report, reports and publications anonymously, but we will never publish your name or personal details. To find out more about your rights, please visit www.falmouth.ac.uk/data-privacy or contact informationoffice@falmouth.ac.uk.
